

Requesting Customers to Leave or Barring Future Use Policy

Approved by: Eastern Counties Regional Library Board
Approved Date: March 29, 2018
Effective Date: February 1, 2019

All customers observing proper conduct in the library are allowed to freely make use of the library. Those whose conduct is disruptive to Eastern Counties Regional Library operations and other customers' use of the library may have the privilege of using the library limited or denied to the extent necessary to deal with the problem.

Customers indulging in improper conduct may be asked to cease that conduct, to move to another location or activity, or to leave the library. Severe or recurring violations of the Library Use Policy may result in the individual(s) involved being barred from any use of the library and all Eastern Counties Regional Library locations and if necessary, this process may include requesting police intervention.

For dealings with conduct of children, see the Youth Conduct and Safety in the Library Policy.

Questions?

If you have any questions or concerns about this policy or its related procedures please contact the Chief Librarian at 902-747-2597.